BUILT ON THE DANCE FLOOR

THE ARTIST

Keenan Orr brings three decades of underground dance-floor experience to a feel-good house sound spanning disco house, tech house, and Chicago house. A Washington, DC native, he pairs precise mixing with a broad musical vocabulary and an instinct for music that moves people.

His roots stretch back to DC's 1990s club scene, with appearances at Buzz/Nation, Red, and Club Five, followed by residencies at Marvin and Eighteenth Street Lounge. Today, he is a resident DJ of SLEAZE. A regular presence on East Coast dance floors, Keenan has carried his DC-rooted sound to clubs and festivals across North America, Europe, and Asia.

KEEandTEEtv

Keenan's KEEandTEEtv project with Tyler Lee Larish takes house music through the streets of Washington, DC. A custom DJ booth built into a vintage 1997 Jeep Wrangler turns each ride into a recorded DJ set, captured on a 360-degree camera. With the city as a moving backdrop, the series brings together music, motion, and a street-level view of DC.

ON AIR

Orr hosted The Launchpad on XM Satellite Radio's The Move (channel 80), showcasing mixes submitted by emerging DJs from across the U.S. and Canada.
He has appeared on The Lot Radio (Brooklyn, New York), Fault Radio (San Francisco, California), Rinse France (Paris, France), Red Bull Radio (Detroit, Michigan), Skylab Radio (Melbourne, Australia), Eaton Radio and WPFW 89.3 FM (Washington, DC), and WRIR 97.3 FM (Richmond, Virginia).

ALPHABET SOUP

Launched during the pandemic, Alphabet Soup was conceived as a series of 26 mixes, one for each letter of the alphabet. The series explores a broad musical spectrum, spanning soulful house, disco, drum and bass, downtempo, and jackin' house.
